DEPUTY CLERK _

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK 225 CADMAN PLAZA EAST BROOKLYN, NEW YORK 11201

ROBERT C. HEINEMANN

TO ALL PERSONS DEPOSITING MONEY AS CASH SECURITY FOR THE RELEASE ON BAIL OF A DEFENDANT IN A CRIMINAL CASE:

- Safeguard the receipt issued to you at the time of depositing the money with the Clerk of the Court so that you may present it to the Cashier when the case is disposed of and you apply to get the money back.
- 2) The person whose name appears on the receipt is the only person entitled to the return of the bail.
- 3) The return of the money will be in the form of a check only. DO NOT ASK FOR CASH.
- When all conditions of the bail bond have been satisfied, and the security deposit can be released, the person who deposited the money or his assignee must go to the cashier in the clerk's office and present the receipt. The cashier will check the court records and, if the money can be released, instruct the depositor to secure the consent of the Assistant U.S. Attorney in charge of the case by going to him and getting an order to release bail. After the U.S. Attorney prepares the order to release bail, the depositor brings the order to the cashier who will take the order to the judge to whom the case is assigned for signature.
- 5) The entire process of turning over the check to the person entitled to it will take some time, depending upon the availability of the Assistant U.S. Attorney and the U.S. District Judge.
- 6) If you lose the receipt, you will have to submit an affidavit explaining how the receipt came to be lost. The affidavit must be notarized. The cashier will provide you with the appropriate form.
- 7) If you wish to assign or transfer the right to all or part of the money to another person, you must execute a legal assignment and file it with the cashier before you ask for the release of the cash bail.
